9) a member appointed on the recommendation of the Lithuanian Academy of Sciences.

12. The Committee of Humanities and Social Sciences and the Committee of Natural and Technical Sciences shall consist of the Chairpersons of these Committees and ten members of each committee who are scientists of appropriate scientific domains. The committees shall, according to the scientific domains, implement the functions and rights assigned to the scope of their competence.

V. FORMATION OF THE COUNCIL

13. Candidates for the office of the Chairperson of the Council, the Scientific Secretary of the Council and the Vice-Chairpersons of the Council (Chairpersons of the Committees) shall be selected by the Minister of Education and Science in consultation with the organizations representing scientists. The institutions indicated in subparagraphs 5-9 of paragraph 11 shall, in accordance with the procedure laid down by themselves, select and submit their candidates for the office of members of the Council to the Minister of Education and Science within the time limit laid down by the Minister.

14. On the recommendation of the Minister of Education and Science, the Prime Minister shall form two scientists’ selection groups: one group shall propose members of the Committee of Humanities and Social Sciences and another – members of the Committee of Natural and Technical Sciences. Each selection group shall comprise three members and a candidate for the office of the Chairperson of an appropriate Committee as proposed by the Minister of Education and Science. He may lead the selection group.

15. The selection groups shall publish in the press a call for the nomination of candidates for members of the Committee of Humanities and Social Sciences and the Committee of Natural and Technical Sciences (hereinafter referred to as the “Committees”). The candidates for members of the Committees may, within the time limit laid down by the selection groups, be nominated by state institutions and research and higher education institutions, scientists’ organizations and scientists (they may also put themselves forward as candidates). The scientists of good repute who are active in research and have experience in research organization, international science cooperation and expert work in the fields of science, technology and economic development at the Lithuanian and European Union level shall be nominated as members of the Committees.

16. The selection groups shall, upon evaluating the proposals received, select 20 scientists per group out of whom the Minister of Education and Science shall select candidates for members of each Committee in consultation with the persons proposed to be appointed as members of the Board. Other persons proposed by the selection groups shall be nominated as members of the Committees where the candidates selected by the Minister of Education and Science are not appointed or where the term of office of the appointed members expires prior to expiry of the specified term.

17. The Minister of Education and Science shall provide the public with an opportunity, within two weeks, to express its opinion on the composition of the committees of the Council. Upon considering the comments received, the Minister shall present to the Government the proposed candidates for the office of members of the Council, the Chairperson of the Council, the Scientific Secretary of the Council and the Vice-Chairpersons of the Council (Chairpersons of the Committees). The Government shall submit the composition of the Council to the Seimas for approval.

18. The Chairperson of the Council, the Vice-Chairpersons, the Scientific Secretary of the Council and members of the Committees, with the exception of those appointed in accordance with these Regulations at the initial formation of the Council, shall be appointed for a five-year term of office. A person may not hold office for more than two successive terms. The members appointed on the recommendation of the institutions referred to in subparagraphs 5-9 of paragraph 11 shall hold their office until they are recalled by the institution which has proposed them, but not longer than for two successive five-year terms.

19. A half of the members of each Committee appointed at the initial formation of the Council shall be replaced upon expiry of a half of the term of office. The members to be recalled shall be proposed by the Board on the recommendation of the Committees. In the cases of recalling of members of the Committees, expiry of their term of office or expiry of their mandate for other reasons, new members of the Committees shall be selected and submitted for approval in accordance with the procedure laid down in paragraphs 14-20.

20. The mandate of the members of the Council who have been recalled or their term of office has expired shall expire upon approval, by the Seimas, of new members of the Council.

21. The mandate of a member of the Council shall expire when he:
